Minimalist Masterpiece Mirage

This distinctive property can be better described as a truly purposeful artwork! This private estate is composed of two adjoined villas which are perfectly suited to be used as one home too. The villas feature very unique architectural designs, where lines, shapes and shadows form the centrepiece of every space of this residence. One of the unique elements in this creation is how the light during different times of the day or season ingeniously alter the atmosphere and carisma both the interior and exterior

A well-known, award winning Lisbon architect masterfully designed these /this niche property in a minimalist style that perfectly complements the protected surrounding countryside. Large windows and various terraces superbly capture the beauty and privacy of the landscape. The homes are mostly white with sugar-cubed step design elements all lending themselves well to the perfection o
